

HSA – Business Scholarship

Scholarship Value: $500

Awards Available (as provided by HSA): One (1)

The purpose of the HSA Business Scholarship is to recognize a Horizon School Division student who has chosen to pursue a business diploma (2 year) or degree at a Saskatchewan post-secondary institution.

Eligibility

- A) The student must be graduating in the year that they apply for the scholarship.
- B) The student must pursue a business diploma (2 year) or degree at a Saskatchewan post-secondary institution.
- C) Applications will be considered based on the student's academic achievement in business related high school courses and a student's business related volunteer experience.

Please submit the completed application form with your high school transcript to your career counsellor before May 31, 2020 for the 2019-20 school year.

The scholarship winner will be chosen by a Horizon School Division Committee.

The scholarship winner will be announced at the winning students high school graduation or award ceremony.

Recipients of the HSA Scholarship will be required to provide their social insurance number and confirmation of enrolment in a post-secondary institute before the scholarship will be awarded. Scholarships are for tuition and will be paid directly to the student. The total amount of the scholarship will be reported on a T4A and must be included in the recipient's taxable income in the year of receipt. This amount is eligible for a scholarship exemption.
