

CRUSADER OF THE WEEK!

SEPTEMBER 9TH, 2019

Claué Angcaya (Grade 1): Claué is always polite and uses her manners. She comes to school smiling and she gives 100% in everything she does. She is a great friend to others and is willing to help out in the classroom whenever needed. Great job Claué!

Erin Rheaume (Grade 12): Erin's positive attitude, respectful manner, diligent work ethic, and involvement in school sports make her an excellent Crusader of the Week. Erin applies herself diligently in her studies and on the court always striving to excel. She treats others in a friendly, caring way and is always ready to volunteer when needed. We are fortunate to have Erin as an outstanding role model in our school.

SEPTEMBER 16TH, 2019

Love Mariano (Grade 6): Love is such a polite, respectful, and responsible young lady who is always willing to help others should they need extra assistance. Even though school is in the early stages, Love has already demonstrated a conscientious attitude towards others. She has a positive outlook and always has a smile on her face. This attitude also extends to her efforts with the cross-country team. She is a great example of a St. Brieux Crusader!

Emma Thomas (Grade 9): Emma is a compassionate, trustworthy, conscientious student! Emma discretely contributes whole-heartedly in many aspects of our school. In her day to day studies, she focusses herself in an unwavering manner, she participates avidly in Cross Country running, she generously contributes to our ME to We group, and she eagerly helps out anyone in need. Emma's genuine, matter of fact, and respectful ways make her a truly valued Crusader of the Week.

SEPTEMBER 24TH, 2019

Teagan Brennan (Gr.2): Teagan is a great student. She puts excellent effort into her schoolwork and her sunny, positive attitude is very much appreciated in our classroom. Teagan is friendly to others and a great example of a St. Brieux Crusader. Great work, Teagan!

Garrett Miller (Grade 11): Garrett's dedication to everything he undertakes, his business-like attitude, and his efficient help make him an exemplary Student of the Week! Garrett is a hard worker in class as well as in sports. His analytical nature contributes to his super leadership and sportsmanship. Garret has really been a positive person on a young football team. He also capably gets things done when volunteers are needed! Garrett is a super role model in our school!

SEPTEMBER 30TH, 2019

Miles Pascua (Gr.6): Miles is such a kind, caring, organized, and respectful young man who is always willing to go the extra mile to help others. He is attentive in class and has a positive outlook towards his studies. Miles is aware of those around him and he often helps other students who may be struggling. Miles is an absolute joy to teach and he is definitely a great representative of our school.

Mathew Weiman (Grade 7): Mathew is a polite young man who works hard to always do his best. He did so well at cross country and was a good representative of our school. Mathew always works hard to hand in all assignments and contributes to class discussions. He always is willing to try and has a positive attitude towards learning. Keep up the good work ethic, Mathew!

OCTOBER 7TH, 2019

Clyte Angcaya (Gr.4): Clyte is a hard working young man, who focuses on his work to complete it neatly and promptly. He is always willing to offer a helping hand to classmates or his teacher. Clyte has a very positive attitude and is worthy of being named Crusader of the Week.

Maggie Weiman (Grade 11): Maggie Weiman consistently displays the characteristics of an outstanding Crusader. She is willing to lend a helping hand in both the classroom and for her teammates, often without being asked to. Her positive attitude and strong work ethic make her an excellent Crusader!

OCTOBER 15TH, 2019

Daria McRae (Grade 3): Daria is a respectful student with a positive attitude. She is a great friend and classmate. She lends a hand when it is needed and she works hard on all of her schoolwork.

Brandi Dressler (Grade 12): Brandi consistently works hard on and off of the volleyball court. She can often be found doing the small extra jobs without being asked to. Brandi helps with a businesslike attitude and contributes excellent ideas. She is a terrific teammate, a great competitor and a caring Crusader.

OCTOBER 21st, 2019

Ava Wielgosz (Gr.5): Ava has had an excellent start to grade 5. She always has herself organized and ready to begin a lesson. Ava takes responsibility for her own learning and is an independent student. She is a good helper with her classmates and a member of junior SRC. The expression "Still waters run deep" describes Ava very well.

Ervine Santiago (Grade 10): Ervine Santiago is a strong defender on the soccer team, and always has a positive attitude. He's determined, a good team player, and shows sportsmanship on and off the field. Ervine's excellent example as an athlete and his consistent dedication to his studies make him a great Crusader of the Week.

OCTOBER 29th, 2019

Rayne Ferre (Gr.4): Rayne is an extremely cooperative, conscientious, and respectful student. Rayne's smile and laugh are contagious! She is not afraid to ask for help when she needs it, and willingly offers help to her fellow classmates when they need it. Rayne is always prepared for her classes, and works diligently to get her work completed neatly and on time. She makes connections to learning during class discussions and shares with the class. Outstanding job, Rayne!

Rhyla Dar (Grade 7): Rhyla's hard working, persistent, respectful disposition make her our Crusader of the Week. She puts a lot of effort in her school work and helps out where needed like score keeping for volleyball games. Rhyla is on the Junior B volleyball team and she works hard towards continuous improvement. She works well with others in her class and always hands in quality assignments.

NOVEMBER 4th, 2019

Dawson Chabot (Gr.5): Are you looking for a diligent, conscientious hard-working student? Look no farther than Dawson Chabot! He takes responsibility for his learning at school and at home. He works hard to complete his assignments at school, and he regularly practices the recorder and his Math facts at home. His hard work in both places is paying off for him at school! Well done, Dawson!

Sam Schnellback (Grade 10): Sam's involvement in SRC, his excellent help with various activities and his good work ethic are commendable. He was a rock solid goalie for the Sr. Boys soccer team this season, and always had a positive attitude on and off the field. Sam's first-rate example make him our Crusader of the Week.

NOVEMBER 13th, 2019

Wil Daubenfeld (Gr.6): Wil has a very mature attitude to all areas of his schoolwork. Work is handed in on time and he is always willing to help others should the need arise. He is always prepared for class and ready to learn. Wil is a conscientious young man who has a great work ethic. Great job, Wil!

Jade Derla (Grade 11): Jade's quiet, positive leadership in the classroom and on the volleyball court is invaluable. Her ability to play multiple positions contributed greatly to her team's success. Jade also applied herself diligently using her artistic skills to create a powerful Remembrance Day poster. Her positive demeanor makes her a great Crusader.

NOVEMBER 18th, 2019

Lacey Gareau (Gr.1): Lacey is a hardworking, respectful student who perseveres through all tasks. She is willing to help out in the classroom whenever she sees something that needs to be done or when she is asked to help. She is a great friend both in the classroom and on the playground. Great work Lacey!

Vincent Santiago (Gr. 12): Vincent's respectful, dependable, conscientious disposition make him an excellent Crusader of the week. Vincent strives for excellence in his studies but takes the time to help others. He treats everyone in a friendly manner and finds a way to enjoy the tasks that he undertakes. Vincent contributes effectively to our school through SRC, Yearbook Club, and, he served his community by serving as MC for this year's Remembrance Day Service.

NOVEMBER 26th, 2019

Corbin Miller (Gr.2): Corbin is a great student. He is pleasant and cooperative and always puts good effort into his schoolwork. Corbin is friendly and gets along well with others. He is kind and has a great sense of humor. Excellent work Corbin!

Allaiza Darasin (Grade 8): Allaiza treats everyone with respect, works hard, and participates in our school athletics. Allaiza's gentle nature makes her very approachable. She shows perseverance and diligence in her work. She was a committed player on her volleyball team displaying good hustle and a positive attitude. Allaiza is an excellent Crusader of the Week.

DECEMBER 2nd, 2019

Zoe Bertrand (Gr.4): Zoe is having a great year so far in Grade 4. She is becoming more confident in sharing her ideas in class and finishes class assignments in the allotted time. Zoe has a growth mindset and utilizes these strategies on a daily basis to persevere in whatever the day brings. She will ask a teacher and/or her peers for help when she needs clarification about a concept or expectation. Zoe prioritizes what is important when needing to finish assignments, and does so independently. Way to go Zoe!

Luis Rosalin (Grade 12); Luis is a dedicated student, teammate and community member. Luis is self-motivated working persistently to excel whether in his studies or in sports. Luis shares his talents as assistant coach of the Junior A and B basketball teams. He also contributes to school functions as a class representative on the SRC. His supportive, respectful manner and his exemplary leadership make him an excellent Crusader of the Week.

DECEMBER 9th, 2019

Dayne Schommer (Gr.6): Dayne is such a conscientious and hardworking young man. He always puts great effort into all areas of his schoolwork and he has a positive attitude towards his studies. Dayne wants to do well academically and he puts in 100% effort in order to achieve this dream. Dayne is a joy to teach and we are proud to call him a Crusader. Great job!

Gaby Lefebvre (Grade 10): Gaby 's example of determination and hard work to achieve her goals make her our Crusader of the Week. She goes the extra mile in her studies and sports. Gaby is not afraid of challenges and always keeps a positive attitude. She is also a member of our ME to WE group looking for ways to help others.

DECEMBER 16th, 2019

Zavier Piatt (Gr.4): Zavier has a very positive attitude and a calm presence in our classroom. He goes above and beyond to be thoughtful of his classmates. He is often in the classroom at the end of the day to sweep up and stack chairs in neat stacks so Mrs. Ruiz' job is easier. It is also noticed that he will sometimes have everyone's chairs at their desks before the school day starts. Zavier is a kind and thoughtful boy who demonstrates the attitude for a Crusader of the Week.

Macy Piatt (Grade 12): Macy's works conscientiously, continuously striving for excellence. She is punctual, respectful and a great classmate. Macy greatly contributed to the Senior Girls' Volleyball team acting as Co-Captain. She also looks for ways to help others as a member of ME to WE. Macy is an excellent role model and a super Crusader!

JANUARY 13th, 2020

Everett Puetz (Gr.4) – Everett eagerly and consistently offers to help his peers when they need it, as well as doing tasks around the classroom. He is engaged in lessons and willingly shares his ideas with the class during large and small group work. Everett always tries his best and perseveres in completing work on time. He will ask questions when he requires more clarification about class tasks. It was great to see his involvement in grades 4-6 soccer and Art Club after school. Awesome Everett!

Kel Calizo (Grade 8): Kel's positive, polite disposition and his diligent attitude make him our Crusader of the Week. Kel applies himself steadily taking responsibility for his work. He participated in soccer and Track and Field. Kel's predictable courteous manner makes him a dependable friend.

JANUARY 20th, 2020

Teslyn Kajner (Gr.2): Teslyn Kajner is a great student. She is friendly and pleasant and puts great effort into all she does. Teslyn is polite and respectful and an excellent example of a St. Brieux Crusader!

Samantha Leray (Grade 12): Samantha's responsible, dedicated work ethic and dependable leadership through SRC make her our Crusader of the week. Samantha strives for excellence in everything that she undertakes making her a great role model for others. She provides excellent guidance and support for the SRC as they plan variety of school-wide activities. Samantha also played an impressive role in drama. Congratulations Samantha!

JANUARY 27th, 2020

Finley Edwards (Gr.6): Finley is an absolute joy to teach. She has a great work ethic and she has a conscientious approach towards all areas of her studies. Finley is such a positive young lady who always has a smile on her face. She is always punctual and ready for class. Finley hands work in on time and she is always willing to help others should the need arise. Finley is a great asset to our Gr.6 class and we are lucky to have her!

Dawson Kessir (Grade 10): Dawson is a terrific Crusader! He is polite and respectful to his peers and staff members. He brings a positive attitude and work ethic to class every day! He was a strong, vocal defender on the Sr. Boys Soccer team who worked well with his teammates! He plays on our Sr. Boys Basketball team. Dawson works incredibly hard and is very coachable.

FEBRUARY 3rd, 2020

Xavier Koeberg (Kindergarten): Xavier is this week's crusader of the week. Xavier is a kind and helpful friend. You can count on Xavier to help clean up toys or get dressed for recess. Xavier has been working very hard in kindergarten and he should be very proud!

.John Rollin Poneles (Grade 9): John Rollin's leadership, politeness, and volunteerism make him our Crusader of the Week. He avidly participates in school sports as a member of the football, soccer, basketball, badminton, and Track and Field teams. He also finds the time to volunteer when needed and can be found officiating for games at some of the most unpopular hours. We are fortunate to have John Rollin's humble, dependable, and courteous ways in our school.

FEBRUARY 10th, 2020

Savannah Vidal (Gr.5): Learning and education mean a great deal to Savannah. She arrived in St. Brieux in November, and immediately set to work. She caught up with the recorder on her own in just a few weeks. Savannah works hard to do her best in all subjects, and she is always ready to go above and beyond. Savannah routinely makes connections between subjects, and between new subjects and what she already knows. She is very inquisitive. Well done, Savannah!

Brady Stewart (Grade 8): Brady is a quiet, open-minded student who strives to do his best. He applies himself well in class and on the basketball court. Brady is a great team player and listens well to his coach. He treats others in a gentlemanly manner. Brady's respectful and attentive disposition make him a great Crusader of the Week.

FEBRUARY 24th, 2020

Kaylie Kovacs (Grade 1): Kaylie always walks into school with a smile on her face and a willingness to help out in the classroom with whatever jobs need to be done. She uses mindfulness to stay in the present moment and also teaches that positive thinking to her peers. She is an excellent example of a St. Brieux Crusader. Great job Kaylie!

Angelina Mamuniak (Grade 9): Angelina is a positive, hard-working student and a great teammate. Angelina greatly enjoys sports participating whole-heartedly in volleyball and basketball. In class, Angelina applies herself diligently striving to thoroughly understand new concepts. She maintains an upbeat attitude even when difficulties arise. Angelina's optimism, willingness to help out and friendly nature make her an excellent Crusader of the Week!

MARCH 2nd, 2020

Josh Howard Poneles (Grade 4): Josh is a kind and polite young man. Josh Howard has a positive attitude toward learning and a very good work ethic. He often volunteers to help others and his bright spirit brightens our classroom.

David Babb (Grade 10): David is a polite, conscientious student who generously supports our Crusader Athletics. He is often seen helping out by scorekeeping for basketball games and tournaments. His calm, businesslike disposition is greatly appreciated! David is an exemplary Crusader of the Week!

MARCH 10th, 2020

Sebastiaan Cadano (Kindergarten): Sebastiaan is always polite and uses his manners. Sebastiaan is a great friend and classmate, and has a great sense of humour. Congratulations Sebastiaan on being the crusader of the week.

Richard Rosalin (Grade 9): Richard's hardworking attitude towards his studies and sports make him an excellent role model. Richard works hard in class to get an excellent understanding of new concepts. He also contributes wholeheartedly on several sports teams by doing extra work to develop his skills to the best of his ability. He is a good teammate and generously volunteers to do scorekeeping for games and tournaments. Richard is a great Crusader of the Week!

MARCH 16th, 2020

Griffin Edwards (Gr.3): Griffin is a respectful student and classmate. He volunteers for jobs around the classroom. He works hard on all of his work and is a great friend.

Aliyah Balaccua (Grade 7): Aliyah is a quiet leader whose dedication and determination are applied to all aspects of her schooling. Aliyah works hard no matter who you pair her with and always puts effort into her assignments. Aliyah treats others with respect and has also joined badminton this year. Keep up the excellent work, Aliyah!